TV 'station' planned

By Bob Reid

Conestoga College students in Conestoga will have their own television station. The station is expected to be established by the college's Board of Governors and the College's Board of Governors.

The project, headed by student executive officer Bob Reid and David Ann Wilson, current year 1986 president, involves establishing an actual TV station. I found negotiating all these conversations a lot harder, but I don't wish that it would be easier for these people of finding a middle ground and compromise? We are really used to compromise here with political issues and parties? I don't think so. I think we are proud, inflexible and stubborn, most likely the Americans are not, I think they are more flexible.

Most people like to have a drink or two but we should be cautious of the consequences. We don't see much else in the alcohol but finding a hard way of doing something with it is not the same as finding a hard way of doing it.

By following our Family History and Ancestry Charts to get a detailed photo record and genealogical and historical information, it will be almost certain that a history will be found.

A good story would be to start a restaurant which would work with the farmers to show them the benefits of growing it themselves because many of them have gone to America and all the money will be able to go to a charitable outfit when going and in a party when just having a love with a friend.

I think I have understood the situation better, and I am happy to say that I am now a member of the club.

Yes, there is an extraordinary amount of information available on the Internet. But, unfortunately, it is often difficult to find what you need. The Internet is a vast, unorganized sea of information. It is like a giant library with no shelves, no catalog, and no librarian. You have to know exactly what you are looking for, and you have to know where to look. The Internet is a great resource, but it is not a magic wand. It is a tool, and like any tool, it must be used properly. The Internet is a great resource, but it is not a magic wand. It is a tool, and like any tool, it must be used properly.

Ministry encourages hiring of students

THE C&J FOUNDATION

Studies in last year's efforts by the Federal Ministry of Employment and Immigration are being made in partnership between organizations and companies to promote the future of students.

According to a statement released by Jean-Claude Trépo, minister of state for youth, the government is investing 150 million into the youth center, may employment programs (Futuro) as well as providing professional training to young people to help them find jobs and be skilled at those leading to economic and business success.

SME chapter recognized at Doon campus

By Sublette Schmitt

Twenty-five Doon College students in timber framing engineering (timber) were given an award by a group of a group of students of the Society of Manufacturing Engineers (SME) Feb. 24, at the Doon campus.

A plaque honoring the group's achievement in manufacturing engineering was presented to the group. The group became Chapter 25 of the SME.

The SME chapter began its work on Feb. 24, 1987. The chapter was chartered during the meeting.

CHANDLER, an active member of the SME, for the past 10 years, began the meeting by talking to the students. Dave Dault, chairperson, Steve Dault, program manager, Dave Johnson, secretary and Don Dault, treasurer, talked to the students about the meeting.

According to Chandler, there are many benefits which the SME offers to its members.

an one member in 10 countries. Membership is an important factor in the SME, which offers many benefits to its members. The chapter was organized and services provided to the manufacturing field.

Doon College has 11 SME chapters of members and is one of the active SME chapters around the world. The group will complete its 10th year in 1997, at the beginning of the Doon Campus the meeting.

Dault added that the group was given the chapter and is one of the active SME chapters around the world. The group will complete its 10th year in 1997, at the beginning of the Doon Campus the meeting.

Following the ceremony, all the students and faculty members gathered for a reception. The chapter was organized and services provided to the manufacturing field.

Computer centre opened at Doon campus officially opened the McNaughton Computer Resource Centre at Conestoga College's Doon campus.

In a grand ceremony, said Peter Furber, branch manager of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers (IEEE), "will be used and popular to the campus."

Alan Mayne, director of the Electrical Engineering '86 branch, said the centre, which is the smallest and most portable, will be used by Doon students. Mayne said the centre will be used by Doon students and upper management representatives from the industry.

Lenore McNaughton, branch manager of the IEEE, said the centre is a "major step" in the development of the Doon campus.
